COMPANY PROFILE

Textile Training · Consultancy · Troubleshooting

PRECISION. QUALITY. PERFORMANCE.

Precision Quality Services (PQS) is a specialized textile consultancy and training company focused on helping textile organizations improve quality, productivity, process control, and operational performance.

We combine technical knowledge with hands-on problem-solving and process improvement to help manufacturers achieve consistent quality and sustainable growth. Our work is rooted in the real challenges of the factory floor · not boardroom theory.

"Better processes create better quality. Better quality creates satisfied customers. Satisfied customers create sustainable business growth."

OUR MISSION

To support textile organizations through professional training, technical consultancy, and practical troubleshooting that strengthen people, processes, and product quality.
